

Heads up! says JOHNNY POL

JOHNNY POL, regarded by many as the nation's Number One Power Mower man, like his associate, Scotty McLaren, is chafing at the bit.

John likes to roam and pop in on customers at ungodly hours. Once he drove all night to keep an appointment, and showed up on the field at 5:30 A.M. Wherever he goes, he is known as "the little guy who knows his stuff about mowers."

But John will be back again just as soon as the shooting stops—in the meantime his advice is "Heads up for Victory."
